

SHOW CONTENT INFORMATION SHEET

- SYNOPSIS: One of the oldest tales of love and betrayal, this medieval legend is brought to life in a new take on the beloved Lerner and Lowe musical that was nominated for five Tony awards and has been performed in theaters around the world since. David Lee has created a small cast version—one requiring only nine actors and this reworking is brilliantly done, putting a sharp focus on the three main characters and transforming it to an intimate story of love, hope and leadership. It takes most of the beloved songs from the original show and creates a musical with a slick, modern feel to it focusing on King Arthur, Guenevere and Lancelot.
- AGES: We recommend this show for ages 10 and up. However, parents are encouraged to use their own judgement and discretion when choosing shows for children based on their maturity and interest level.
- DETAILS: By today's standards, this show would probably be rated PG. As in the Arthurian legend, Guenevere falls in love with someone other than her husband and plans an affair. Some staging is suggestive alluding to sexual attraction. Lancelot will be shirtless while embracing Guenevere.
- LENGTH: Approximately 2 1/2 hours with an intermission.
