

"Dearly Beloved"

SHOW CONTENT INFORMATION SHEET

SYNOPSIS:

Written by the team that brought us DIXIE SWIM CLUB, SAVANNAH SIPPING SOCIETY and HALLELUJAH GIRLS, this delightful, laugh-a-minute comedy is delivered Texas style! The three feuding Futrelle sisters of Fayro, Texas are thrown together to pass off an over-the-top antebellum-themed wedding as an elegant affair. But with the snooty mother of the groom scheming to ruin the day, an inexperienced seminary student filling in for the drunk pastor, and a church full of small-town eccentrics, it isn't going well. The proceedings go hysterically off course with the stunning revelation that the bride-to-be and her intended have fled town. The Futrelles scramble to keep the mutinous wedding guests in place while the Deputy Sheriff races through the countryside to collar the runaway couple and drag them back for the "I dos." This joyful comedy about love, marriage, sisterhood and three hundred pounds of good, ol' Texas barbeque will have you laughing all the way down the aisle!

AGES:

We recommend this show for ages 10 and up. However, parents are encouraged to use their own judgement and discretion when choosing shows for children based on their maturity and interest level.

DETAILS:

While this show only has a few mild curse words in it, the subject matter may not hold the attention of younger children. Much of the dialogue is about middle-aged men and women and their love lives, including jokes about their sex lives. Some characters talk about drinking alcoholic beverages and one character appears severely intoxicated after overdosing on cold medicine.

LENGTH:

Approximately 2 1/2 hours with an intermission.
