

“Bright Star”

SHOW CONTENT INFORMATION SHEET

- SYNOPSIS: Inspired by a true story and featuring the Tony®-nominated score by Steve Martin and Edie Brickell, Broadway’s BRIGHT STAR tells a sweeping tale of love and redemption set against the rich backdrop of the American South in the 1920s and ’40s. When literary editor Alice Murphy meets a young soldier just home from World War II, he awakens her longing for the child she once lost. Haunted by their unique connection, Alice sets out on a journey to understand her past—and what she finds has the power to transform both of their lives. With beautiful melodies and powerfully moving characters, the story unfolds as a rich tapestry of deep emotion. An uplifting theatrical journey that holds you tightly in its grasp, BRIGHT STAR is as refreshingly genuine as it is daringly hopeful.
- AGES: We recommend this show for ages 10 and up. While there are only a few mild curse words, the subject matter may not hold the attention of a young patron. However, parents are encouraged to use their own judgment when choosing shows for children based on their maturity and interest level.
- DETAILS: This show has just a couple mild curse words (hell and bastard used with its original meaning). The plot involves a teenage pregnancy. There are discussions about alcohol, and some characters drink alcohol onstage. There is a moment at the end of Act 1 where an infant is in a dangerous situation.
- LENGTH: Approximately 2 ½ hours with an intermission.
- CONTACT: For any questions or concerns, please contact Annie Myers at 812-288-2632 ext. 114 or by email at amyers@derbydinner.com
