

SHOW CONTENT INFORMATION SHEET

- SYNOPSIS: Written by Tony® award winner Rupert Holmes, Accomplice is a theatrical roller coaster that will trigger screams of laughter even as audiences vow to keep its secrets hush-hush. The story begins in Dartmoor, England at the stylish weekend retreat of the affluent Derek and Janet Taylor, and both adultery and murder are in the air. But we will soon learn that all is never as it seems in this electrifying game of trickery and misdirection. Who is the hunter and who the hunted? “The best fooler since Sleuth and twice as clever!” said the L.A. Times, while L.A. Theatre & Entertainment Review proclaimed it “the comedy thriller of all comedy thrillers!”
- AGES: This show has some mature themes. We recommend this show for ages 13 and up. However, parents are encouraged to use their own judgement and discretion when choosing shows for children based on their maturity and interest level.
- DETAILS: This play contains adult themes and sexual innuendo. There is at least one murder acted out on stage, and much discussion about murder. There is infidelity between married people and stage kisses between actors of the same gender. A woman wears lingerie onstage and appears to take off her bra. There is a simulation of sexual relations under a blanket onstage. There is discussion and description of a suicide. Characters talk about and are seen drinking alcohol onstage often. There are a several curse words in the dialogue.
- LENGTH: Approximately 2 hours with an intermission.
