

Love, Lies and the Lottery

SHOW CONTENT INFORMATION SHEET

- SYNOPSIS: Buckle up for this fast paced, joy ride of crazy characters, betrayal and disguises! Ever wonder what happens when a multi-million-dollar lottery prize goes unclaimed? Poor Peter never did. Until he discovered that he has a winning ticket. He has one week to claim the prize, an 82 year-old mother who just moved in to “help”, her 87 year-old boyfriend, a puppy in heat, a dim-witted best friend and several other insane characters to contend with all while trying to keep the news from his cold-hearted wife who is divorcing him. The laughs just keep coming in this zany new comedy from Jim Hesselman (playwright of THE BUNCO SQUAD).
- AGES: We recommend this show for ages 15 and up. However, parents are encouraged to use their own judgement and discretion when choosing shows for children based on their maturity and interest level.
- DETAILS: By today’s standards, this show would probably be rated PG-13. This is definitely an adult themed show with characters frequently discussing their sex lives and sexual innuendo throughout. Some costumes will be revealing. Some characters disguise themselves in clothing of the opposite sex. Characters may make lewd gestures.
- LENGTH: Approximately 2 ½ hours with an intermission.
